A MESSAGE FROM Father Vince

FR. VINCE COSTELLO
RESIDENT PRIEST

DEAR PARISHIONERS AND FRIENDS,

So, How Do You Make It Holy?

Someone much wiser than I simply, but accurately, stated that there are fifty-two weeks in the year, and only one of them is called "holy." Each year on Palm Sunday we begin Holy Week.

I have heard that western visitors to Muslim countries often comment that they can sense there is something different in the air during the sacred month of Ramadan. No one needs to inform them that they happen to be visiting during the holiest month in the Muslim calendar. They say they can pick up a palpable feeling that something special is going on. This is not true for us in the secularized west when we begin Holy Week. For most of us the world keeps on spinning as it always does during the other fifty-one weeks. We go to work, we attend school, the television and Internet programming does not significantly change, and if Holy Week and spring break converge we may even go on vacation. I have known people who routinely spend Good Friday in Disney World. If we lived during a different time and in a different culture it would be easier to keep these days holy for ourselves and for our families. Therefore, we need to make deliberate choices and to undertake certain behaviors if we wish to make this week special.

The most important thing we can do during Holy Week is to celebrate the Sacred Triduum – the liturgies Holy Thursday, Good Friday, Easter and its Vigil. The Mass of the Lord's Supper will be celebrated at 7:30 p.m. on Holy Thursday on both of our campuses. In one of our churches, Our Lady of Lourdes, Mass will be celebrated in Spanish, and at St. Mary of the Lake it will be celebrated in English. On Good Friday evening we will enter into the Liturgy of the Lord's Passion and Death at 7:30 at both of our churches. Again, one service will be in Spanish and the other in English. On Holy Saturday the Easter Vigil will begin at 8:30 p.m. (because we need to wait for the sun to set). The Vigil will be bilingual, and it will be celebrated only at the St. Mary of the Lake site. I realize that coming to church these three evenings may involve some juggling of calendars as well as a bit of a sacrifice, but I suspect that if we are able to do so we will come to know Jesus in a newer and deeper way. Of course, since the Easter Vigil "counts" for Sunday, those who participate in it will not need to contend with the crowds in our churches on Easter Sunday morning.

Included in this month's edition of our parish bulletin we have placed the full schedule of the variety of opportunities for prayer we offer during Holy Week, including a special retreat. I encourage us to consider participating in many of them. Individually, we can also perform little acts of penance during these days. Some folks significantly cut back on food consumption from Holy Thursday evening through Easter. Others make the decision to forego the use of electronic communication from noon until 3:00 p.m. on Good Friday. A friend of mine usually watches the film "The Passion of Christ" during Holy Week. Some families with small children dye eggs on Holy Saturday morning which they we eat for breakfast on Easter morning. There are several creative ways we can make this week different. I hope we choose to avail ourselves of these opportunities. It is up to us to choose to make Holy Week …..holy.

HOLY WEEK RETREAT

A Time for Prayer, Reflection, and Discussion

SAINT MARY OF THE LAKE AND OUR LADY OF LOURDES CATHOLIC CHURCH

Signs and symbols. Silence and singing. Death and life.

The liturgies of Holy Week invite us to reflect on what it means to live as a Catholic Christian in the world today. As we gather to celebrate, we take the time to break open the Scriptures, hymns, and ritual actions that make up the Sacred Triduum. By doing this, we search our hearts and unite them to the heart of Christ as we enter more fully into the Paschal Mystery – all of life's sufferings, deaths, and risings.

This year, consider being a part of a small community of parishioners that will gather in prayer, reflection, and discussion. Together, we will prepare our hearts, celebrate the mysteries, and unpack their meaning in our lives. The Catechism of the Catholic Church states that liturgy is the privileged place for catechesis (1074). Our faith is echoed to us in these celebrations and they instruct us how we are to live as missionary disciples in our community. On this pilgrim journey, we serve as companions and catechists to each other.

"…through liturgical signs and sacramentals, [the Church] is united to Christ her Spouse in intimate communion." Paschale Solemnitatis, #38

A MESSAGE FROM OUR Archbishop

EASTER 2022

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

As we gather this year to celebrate the Lord's Resurrection, we cannot avoid our circumstances. Shadows of sin and death loom large over us. The pandemic, our experience of social unrest and daily violence on our streets, and, of course, the horrors of war in Ukraine and other parts of the world—all remind us how much we need the Lord's redemptive and healing power in our lives.

Our source of hope amid these challenges is anchored in all that we have witnessed in the liturgies of Holy Week. We have celebrated that the Lord Jesus entered into the fullness of our human experience. He went to the very darkest edges of that human experience. He entered into our suffering, struggle, and even our desperation, when he cried out on the cross, "My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?" He squarely faced sin and death on the cross.

And it was precisely in the moment he fully emptied himself, placing himself totally in the hands of God, that he was raised up from the dead victorious. But, his rising from the dead is not just a matter of his personal vindication. He came back from the dead for us, to give us a share in his victory. This is what takes place in our Baptism,which is confirmed in the Holy Spirit, and sustained by the Eucharist. He lives in us, and his victory over sin and death lives in us as well.

As Pope Francis reminds us, we need to share the victory of the resurrection with others, as Jesus did with us. We do this by being sisters and brothers to one another. As Church, we are a family of faith that walks with each other in moments of pain, struggle, and grief, keeping alive the promise that Jesus, the victor over sin and death, remains with us. We are never abandoned. My prayer for all of us in the Archdiocese of Chicago is that we will stand firm in hope, confident that the One who has gone before us in death has come back from the dead for us. May the peace of the Risen Lord be with you and those you love.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Blase Cardinal Cupich

RESTORATION

I'm a big fan of William Shakespeare. I first read some of his plays and poems in high school. After I graduated, I attended the University of Wisconsin at Madison, where I studied Shakespeare in more depth and earned a degree in English literature. Of all of Shakespeare's works, Hamlet is my favorite. The play opens on a dark winter night outside of Elsinore Castle in Denmark. Two guards keeping watch on the castle walls hear footsteps, but there are no stars or moon to help them see. One of the men cries out, "Who's there?" Shakespeare then spends the next five acts of Hamlet attempting to answer the question.

"Who's there?" is a question worth asking ourselves. Everyday activities can drain us. The past two years have brought an enormous amount of additional stress into our lives. The pandemic, political upheaval, and social unrest have turned our lives upside down. We may wonder who we are now, and where we are going. The effects of the stress we have endured vary from person to person, but they can be significant and far reaching. Like Hamlet's guards on the castle walls, we might feel disoriented by the dark, and tired and afraid. While I cannot speak to whether life will return to what we once knew, it is possible to replenish the psychological and emotional resources depleted by stress. I can help you work toward restoring the things that previously brought you happiness, stability, and joy. Please reach out. Together we can explore the question, "Who's there?" in your life.
