A MESSAGE FROM Father Jesus

DEAR PARISHIONERS,

A few days ago we celebrated the Solemnity of Jesus Christ, King of the Universe. With this solemnity we complete the liturgical year and give way to the Season of Advent, with which we begin a New Liturgical Year within the Church.

By recognizing and celebrate Jesus as King of Kings, we must deepen into what this means. This Solemnity is the culmination that gives meaning to what we will celebrate throughout this liturgical year that we are beginning; It is the advent of the Lord who comes to the world, no longer as a Little Baby, but in all His glory to reign over the creation redeemed by the sacrifice of Mount Calvary.

When we talk about a reign or a monarchy, our imagination immediately brings to our mind the image a person seated on a throne, a crown, elegant clothes, a scepter and plenty of servants attentive to the needs of "his majesty," whose powerful army was always victorious in great fights against other kingdoms. It is precisely that idea that will take the Three Wise Men to Herod's palace in search of the King who has been born.

That is also the idea that, at first, the apostles and the Jewish community had of Jesus. They thought that Jesus, as the Messiah and "Son of David," would be the one who would finally free them from the hands of their oppressors, which at that time was the Roman Empire. This idea was so real among the people that even the apostles themselves fought to get a position of honor once the kingdom of Jesus was established.

But the reign of Jesus is not like that of the "kings" of our world. Certainly, Jesus is a king and has ascended to the throne, but his throne is not made of marble, much less dripped in gold, but made of humble and fragile wood dripped and adorned with his Precious Blood. He certainly has a crown, but not covered with emeralds and diamonds to adorn his head, but one with sharp thorns that breakthrough his already bloody head. He does not have silk clothes embroidered with gold threads, but only his skin torn and disfigured by so many lashes and spit. His scepter is not made of precious metals to point at people and to condemn his subjects, but his scepter is made of his own words of love and mercy that points the way to all who approach Him with a sincere and repentant heart. And unlike our rulers, Jesus does not sit at ease waiting to be served and adulated, but he himself girds the robe and begins to serve even to the point of giving his life for those he loves. His mighty army is not sent to kill and conquer with a strong hand and sharp swords, but to love and win souls for heaven through the announcement of the Good News of salvation through Jesus Christ.

During this Advent, we must strive to imitate that King whom we wait for and whose birth we celebrate. As baptized members of the Church, we all share three characteristics that should distinguish us as Christians in the world: We are priests; we share the common priesthood with which we can offer our daily sacrifices to God through prayer, penance, fasting, etc., for our own and / or our brothers' sake; We are prophets, called to announce the Good News, and at the same time, to denounce sin; and finally, we are kings, called to reign with Christ and like Christ at the service of the Heavenly Father through charity and mercy shown to our neighbor.

FR. JESUS ROMERO
Associate Pastor

With the Solemnity of Christ the King still fresh in our minds, and aware that Advent is that time of preparation for the second coming of the Lord, let us remain aware during the year ahead, that both the Child who is born and the Lord who returns in glory and majesty are the same King of Kings who comes to implant truth, justice, love, forgiveness and full life. Just as He was sent to the world with that mission, He also sends us to announce to every creature the Good News of the Reign of Christ. May we rediscover our Christian identity and go to the encounter to the naked, the hungry, the thirsty, the sick, the imprisoned, and the needy, so that at the end of our days, when the Lord comes, surrounded by his glory, he may say to us: "Come, blessed of my father; take possession of the kingdom prepared for you from the creation of the world ... "because you were able to find me in your brother in need.

May God bless you.

Your brother in Christ,

Fr. Jesus

WELCOME TO OUR NEW Associate Pastor

WELCOME OUR NEW ASSOCIATE PASTOR: FATHER ALPHONSE TWIZERIMANA

Dear Parishioners and Friends of Saint Mary's and Our Lady of Lourdes,

It gives me great joy to share with you that effective today, Cardinal Cupich has appointed a second associate pastor to assist me in serving the members of our community. He is Father Alphonse Twizerimana.

Father Alphonse is a Rwandan born priest and was ordained to the priesthood on July 10th, 2004. He is the middle child of three siblings, one older brother and one younger sister. As a child, he enjoyed playing soccer, volleyball, and altar serving. He also had a passion for education which continued from the refugee camp into his adult life. Due to the war and genocide that happened in his home country, Father Alphonse moved in 1994 from his home country to Uganda, Democratic Republic of Congo, and Zambia. It is during this moving from one place to the other that he learned about many different peoples and their cultures. He strongly feels it is essential to learn from other people's cultures and understand them.

From his young age, Father Alphonse felt a calling to become a priest. He was inspired to take on his vocation by the priests who used to visit his home village. The priests helped his community prosper and organized many activities for the children and youth, including the young Father Alphonse. Father Alphonse found the priests' work to be noble and was inspired to imitate them. As a priest, he loves celebrating mass, working with the community, reading, and teaching.

Father Alphonse did his primary education and his junior seminary in Rwanda. He did his propaedeutic year, his philosophy, his theology, and his master's degree in educational management and administration in Zambia. Father Alphonse served as an associate pastor and a pastor at Christ the King Parish in Zambia until December 2007 when he was called back by his bishop to return to serve in his home diocese, Ruhengeri, in the Northern part of Rwanda.

In Rwanda, Father Alphonse served as a spiritual director for one year, and as a school principal for twelve years at Groupe Scolaire Saint Jerome Janja, a boarding school of 1,000 middle school and high school students.

Father Alphonse came to the United States in January 2021 to begin Doctoral studies in Educational Leadership at DePaul University. While doing his coursework, Father Alphonse was a resident priest at Saint Josaphat Parish in Lincoln Park. He is currently working on his dissertation.

Father Alphonse is proficient in Kinyarwanda, French, English, and three local Zambian languages.

Please join me in welcoming Father Alphonse to our community. Next time you are in church please introduce yourself to him. You may also contact him by emailing him at FrAlphonse@saintmarys.org

Most grateful for you,
Father Manny

GIVING WITH THE HEAD AND THE HEART

As we approach the end of the calendar/tax year, it is a time when many think about their year-end charitable giving. Here are a few ways to maximize your charitable donations while minimizing your tax liability and saving yourself time and money in the process.

- Donor Advised Fund (DAF): A DAF is a type of charitable giving account: you make a donation to your DAF account, receive a tax deduction for the current tax year, and have the flexibility to direct your DAF balance as gifts to the parish at any time in the future. It's simple, flexible and tax efficient.
- Stocks and Mutual Funds: Giving stocks, bonds, mutual funds or ETFs to the parish rather than cash could increase the value of your gifts, cost you less money, and lower your tax bill. Donating publicly traded securities allows you to avoid capital gains taxes (which can be as high as 20% on long-term holdings) and you are still able to claim a charitable deduction for the full fair-market value of the donated securities. That stretches your dollar further than just selling the stock and giving cash.
- Gifts from Your Individual Retirement Account (IRA): Are you taking Required Minimum Distributions (RMD) from an IRA? You can avoid income taxes on your RMD by making a Qualified Charitable Distribution (QCD) from your IRA and avoid paying taxes on the distribution. That's a huge tax advantage that satisfies part or all of your required minimum distribution. Thank you for considering St. Mary of the Lake-Our Lady of Lourdes Parish in your charitable giving plans.
- Remember to leave the parish in your estate plans: The parish sometimes learns that former or current parishioners, who recently passed away, left the parish in their will or named the parish as a beneficiary of some of their remaining assets. This is a remarkable way to memorialize your own legacy. With such gifts, the parish invests and uses these funds for long-term planning and investment of the parish or as the donor intends.

Thank you for your generous giving and faithful sharing with the parish. The parish administration strives to be the best stewards of your gifts. If you are in need of any information or have questions, please contact our Operations Director, Geoff Pautsch, in the Parish Office.
